Why should I join WILDHUB PREMIUM on NAS.COM?

WILDHUB PREMIUM gives you access to a focused global community built for wildlife photographers, filmmakers, content creators, explorers, conservation storytellers, and nature-driven professionals.

The community is designed to help members network, learn, collaborate, grow their personal brands, discover new opportunities, and turn their passion into income through a more connected global wild ecosystem.

What makes this community different?

Unlike large public communities with scattered engagement, WILDHUB PREMIUM focuses on quality connections, niche learning, and real opportunities.

Members gain access to:

- Exclusive workshops and online events
- One-to-one learning opportunities with experts
- Wildlife tours and curated experiences
- Premium educational and digital content
- Member-only benefits, offers, and collaborations
- A more focused and active international community

In addition, members can access selected premium products and services at special community rates.

Can I join for just one month?

Yes. You may start with a one-month membership plan. After the initial month, you can continue by upgrading to a 3-month or 12-month membership plan.

Can I get a refund after payment?

No. All payments are non-refundable.

NAS.COM manages all payment processing on behalf of AWPC WILDHUB. Membership access will remain active until the end of your subscribed period. Refunds are not applicable for memberships, events, digital products, or other related services.

Are there additional charges for premium products or services?

Your membership fee covers access to the community and includes member benefits. Certain premium workshops, tours, events, products, or special experiences may carry separate discounted pricing exclusively for members.

Are recordings provided for online workshops or events?

No. Online events, workshops, and live sessions are designed as real-time experiences, and recordings are generally not provided unless specifically stated otherwise.

Our Advice

Please carefully review all membership details, benefits, and policies before making any payment. Once a payment is completed, it is considered final and non-refundable.
